

INFORMAL STOCKTAKING CONSULTATION

Climate Smart Agriculture Investment Plans for Africa
Rabat, Morocco, from 10 to 11 June 2019

Programme

10 June	DAY1
8:30-9:00	Registration; informal introductions.
9:00-09:45	Welcome, Introductions, AAA Foundation perspective, Objectives and Expected Outputs of the Consultation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Ms Abir Lemseffer, Director General of AAA Foundation ● Ms Marie Françoise Marie-Nelly, Country Director for the Maghreb and Malta, Middle East and North Africa, World Bank ● Mr Mihoub Mezouaghi, Country Director in Morocco, French Development Agency ● Pr Mohamed Aït Kadi, President of the AAA Scientific Committee
09:45-10:00	Keynote: Pr. Rachid BOUABID, AAA Scientific Committee: Linking Science and Policy—a AAA vision-to-action agenda
10:00-10:45	State of the Art in CSA Design and Implementation —Mr. Evan Girvetz (CIAT/CCAFS) (with Q&A opportunity)
10:45-11:00	15 minutes coffee break
11:00-13:00	CSAIPs Completed to Date - Lessons learned - Morocco, Cote d'Ivoire, Mali, Zambia, Bangladesh, Zimbabwe, Lesotho : Presentations will highlight the main conceptual and planning frameworks used in the elaboration of the respective CSAIPs; the key results of the CSAIP exercise; the way forward in implementing the priorities identified in the CSAIPs; main lessons with respect to process, M&E, and other lessons to be identified by the respective speakers. The Panel will be followed by open Q&A and discussion.
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-17:00	CSAIPs Under Preparation - The way forward - Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Ghana, Republic of Congo Short presentations by new CSAIP countries, followed by break-out working groups to discuss likely top priority issues, methodological considerations, specific lessons learned from other CSAIP countries, etc. Reporting back to plenary by each group.
17:00-17:15	Wrap-up of Day 1
11 June	DAY 2
09:00-09:15	Summary of first day's discussions/recommendations
09:15-09:45	Keynote: AAA Approach to Catalyzing Funding for Climate Action in African Agriculture, by Ms Abir Lemseffer, DG of AAA Foundation

09:45-10:15	Keynote: Options for Funding of CSAIP Priority Investments — By Ms. Tanja Havemann (Clarmondial) and WB Representatives. Covering an update on the main sources of Climate Action investments in the development finance “architecture” today. Special emphasis will be made on the various types of investments foreseen in CSAIPs in general and some “deep-dive” in the results discussed by country representatives at the present Consultation. Specific advice for moving forward on both the preparation of new CSAIPs as well as the implementation of completed CSAIPs will be presented.
10:15-10:30	15 minutes coffee break
10:30-12:00	Panel discussion: Financing CSAIP investments (Moderated by Tobias Baedeker, WB) Panelists from AAA, AFD, DFID, GIZ, AfDB, IsDB, GCAM, MAMDA, OCP, Clarmondial and other Consultation Participants will be invited to give their respective approaches to funding of Agriculture-related Climate Action priorities globally and in the African Continent. While this is not a pledging meeting for specific declaration of support to investments, panelists will be asked to react to what they heard at the Consultation with respect to the priorities in their respective agencies. An open Q&A and discussion will follow the panelists’ observations.
12:00-13:00	Lunch Break
13:00-14:30	Monitoring and Evaluation (Moderated by Riad Balaghi, AAA Initiative) Lessons learned to date and recommendations for evidence-based planning implementation and effective resource mobilization (Experience from CSAIPs). The emerging AAA vision and approach on accountability (as well as fundraising) with respect to agriculture-related NDCs, SDGs and other global, continental and country collecting and reporting of results of progress on Climate Action in agriculture. An open discussion will follow on M&E; Funding mechanisms and related issues).
14:30-15:00	Summary of Consultation outputs and recommendations and agreed next steps.
	Concluding Remarks